Challenge and Support:	World wide learning/ links to 21st century:	Cultural capital/ Industry/ Enrichment:
The opportunity to challenge one's self and develop creative skills is vast within this KS4 topic. The gcse art scheme is so varied, and gives every student from HPA to LPA an opportunity to respond in a personal and stretched manner. Students will be stretched through the development of their visual skills using techniques such as refined proportion, kinaesthetic connections, expanding knowledge of the colour and tonal use of mark making, exploring the fact we can draw, paint and record everyday. Students can choose varying methods to reproduce artists' work: Tracing / Gridding up / Freehand/Digital.. Exemplar examples of final works and sketchbooks from previous students are used to teach how grades are awarded and to give ideas on presentation, content and expected levels of presentation.	Contemporary artists - All of these artists offer a diverse knowledge of the contemporary arts, what is to be a professional artist and contribute to an enriched arts curriculum. Rosiland Monks, is a Swiss artist and illustrator. She explores a wide range of projects. Offers insight into working as a professional artist. Sarah Graham, a British painter who explores colour and scale. She has talked about mental health and the importance of this care. Kate Brinkworth, is a British painter best known for her Photorealist depictions of glossy advertisements, film noir scenes, and shiny candy. Inspired by the films of Hitchcock. Vic Vicini, is an American painter, Whether its vintage cars, rusted out tools, old toasters or retro objects, diners or retro food packaging art, these are thoughts and images that play a strong influence in his art. Michael Craig Martin, is an Irish-born contemporary conceptual artist and painter.<sup>[1][2]</sup> He is known for fostering and adopting the Young British Artists, many of whom he taught, and for his conceptual artwork, An Oak Tree. Historical key figure artists:  Wayne Thiebaud was an American painter known for his colourful works depicting commonplace objects.	All of the artists highlighted give a wealth of connections to cultural capital. However, throughout there will be links with industry through 'bit sized' videos of 'day in the life of.' This helps to give a wider knowledge of the potential career path.  https://en-gb.padlet.com/Empowercareers/hy9vh3qeishlmo52

Historical, Social, Moral, Spiritual, Cultural context:	Cross curricular links/ literacy/numeracy:	Common misconceptions:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Throughout this scheme each artist, material and technique, support to develop historical creative knowledge.</li> <li>● Each artist offers their own personal insight into cultural connections, moral and spiritual topics.</li> <li>● The link to one's self through creating and investigating edible, is a great chance for the project to become the students' own, and continues to create cultural connections to their own self and the wider knowledge of other artists.</li> <li>● It is not to be underestimated the importance also of 'creating,' and benefits this can bring to focus, well being and creative problem solving too.</li> <li>● Many of the artists we study have also overcome a number of personal difficulties, this can be of great interest to students as it helps to build an understanding of personal challenges and goal setting.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● This project explores edible and foods offering connections with Food tech, cultural experiences, geography and understanding our foods. It also links to elements of biology.</li> <li>● Many of the practical activities offer use of numeracy from measuring out a drawing, to mixing the correct quantities of paint.</li> <li>● Throughout this project each student is encouraged to speak out loud about the artists, their artwork, and contribute to discussions.</li> <li>● The gcse requires each student to reflect and extend all opportunities for writing and extending their thought process.</li> </ul>	That tracing is 'cheating'. Tracing is a perfectly valid form of drawing, which requires skills in tonal to bring the image alive. Students are urged to use their sketchbooks as a 'working document' where their thoughts and feelings are expressed. Sketchbooks do not have to be impeccable articles, but they do need to communicate a creative journey. The importance of 'refining' an idea. This must be explicit. The final outcome needs to be worked out through a number of pages in a sketchbook, in order to make sense. The written word is more important than ever within GCSE Art and Design. The student must be proficient in explaining their intentions, annotating work and contextualising artists/ movements/ cultures.

		Students are encouraged to show skills across a broad range of media. This needs to be done in, and outside the sketchbook .
