

HISTORY CURRICULUM

INTENT	At BMPS ...	TOGETHER EVERYONE ACHIEVES MORE
	VISION	Inspire our pupils' curiosity and fascination about Britain's past and that of the wider world. To develop lines of enquiry about how our countries values have influenced and been influenced by global and national events. They will investigate different types of information from events that have taken place within living memory as well as events, which happened beyond that time. Using both classroom and field settings the children will explore major ancient civilisations as a well as the impact of major events on their locality.
	AIMS	High quality teaching that develops learning and results in a broad knowledge base for children to use in the wider world.	A desire to embrace challenging activities, including opportunities to make links across the curriculum.	Topics are enquiry led, and investigate and develop the concepts and understanding of change and continuity, causation, chronology and significant events.	Key skills – critically investigating primary and secondary sources. Creating questions, which require a deep level of research and understanding that all sources can be affected by bias.
