ICT & digital creative

The tech sector is a major growth area for Norfolk but digital skills are in demand across all sectors.

Getting creative in Norfolk...

In the creative digital sector: 23,000 people employed. Over 3,000 businesses[1]

Did you know? Most businesses in these sectors employ fewer than 10 people.

▼ Wanted

High demand roles include:

- cyber security specialist
- big data manager
- 3D designer
- animator
- visual effects designer
- software programmer
- graphic designer

Do you have what it takes?

10 Top Skills and Qualities

Creativity | Advanced digital & ICT skills
Communication | Problem solving
Attention to detail | Design | Flexibility
Planning & organisation | Teamwork
Business knowledge

Useful Subjects

Maths | Computer science | ICT
Design & technology | Physics | English
Art | Media | Music | Business studies
Psychology | History | Sociology

Routes in options include:

- apprenticeship
- T-level or A levels
- College course
- degree
- higher or degree apprenticeship
- graduate scheme
- post graduate degree

Some Norfolk employers

- BBC East
- Archant
- BT
- Rainbird
- ITV Anglia

Find out more

www.discovercreative.careers
www.thetechpartnership.com/tech-future-careers www.technation.techcityuk.com/cluster/norwich/
www.techeast.com

Norfolk County Council

What could you earn?*

Photographer	£25,000
Graphic designer	£27,000
Marketing associate professional	£28,500
Web designer	£33,500
Clothing designer	£30,000
Cyber security professional	£42,000
Software developer	£44,000
IT systems designer	£49,500

*ASHE 2021 median full-time earnings
[1] Emsi – economicmodelling.co.uk