

Health

Looking for a rewarding career? You could be caring for patients, managing appointments, working in labs or researching new medicines.

▼ Wanted!

High demand roles include:

- medical
- radiographer
- nursing assistant
- physiotherapist
- speech and language therapist
- paramedic
- operating department practitioner
- psychologist
- GP
- pharmacist

The future?

- Self-monitoring
- Bionic body parts
- Genetic engineering
- Care-bots
- Predictive medicine
- More private healthcare

Routes in options include:

- apprenticeship
- T-level or A levels
- college course
- degree
- higher or degree apprenticeship
- postgraduate degree

Norfolk is home to world leaders in food science & tech

- NHS hospitals
- NHS health centres
- Nursing homes
- Private healthcare companies (such as Spire Healthcare)

Find out more

www.healthcareers.nhs.uk
www.microbiologysociety.org/careers.html
www.bps.org.uk/public/become-psychologist www.abdo.org.uk/for-the-public/careers-in-optics

NHS
Over 350
careers!

Do you have what it takes?

10 Top Skills and Qualities

Care & compassion | Listening
Teamwork | Speaking | Leadership
Planning & organisation | Problem solving
Digital skills | Calm under pressure
Analytical skills

Useful Subjects

Chemistry | Biology | English | Maths
Psychology | Computer science
Sociology | Physics

What could you earn?*

Dental nurse	£18,500
Medical secretary	£21,500
Lab technician	£22,250
Nurse	£36,000
Biological scientist	£39,000
Midwife	£41,250
Pharmacist	£44,000
Doctor	£64,500

*ASHE 2021 median full-time earnings

Norfolk County Council