

APHS and the Prevent Strategy

APHS conducts work to educate children to enable them to contribute positively to the community they live in, wherever that may be.

- This includes specific work in response to and in line with government Prevent guidance which seeks to:
- Respond to the ideological challenge of terrorism and aspects of extremism, and the threat faced from those who promote these views.
- Provide practical help to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and ensure they are given appropriate advice and support
- Work with a wide range of sectors where there are risks of radicalisation which need to be addressed, including education, criminal justice, faith, charities, the internet and health
- Teach a broad and balanced curriculum which promotes the spiritual, moral and cultural development of students and prepares them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of life. This includes assemblies, Citizenship Days, lessons and external advice and speakers.
- Protect students from harm and to ensure that they are taught in a way that is consistent with the law and British values. To this end it acts to:
 - Raise awareness
 - Provide information
 - Enable learners to make a positive contribution
 - Safeguard young people
