Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Residential trip to Hilltop Outdoor Adventure Centre

I am delighted to inform you that we have organised a residential visit to Hilltop Outdoor Adventure Centre, Sheringham. The dates for this visit are:

Current Year 7 (who will be in Year 8 September 2021): Saturday 11th September to Sunday 12th September 2021.

Current Year 6 (who will be in Year 7 September 2021): Saturday 25th September to Sunday 26th September 2021

Hilltop Outdoor Centre is an independent, family run Outdoor Education Centre set in 31 acres of scenic and beautiful woodlands overlooking the traditional seaside town of Sheringham on the North Norfolk coast.

The ethos of Hilltop is 'Challenge by Choice' which enables personal development in an atmosphere of trust and responsibility. The activities and sessions all aim to promote resilience and learning through; Enjoyment, Reflection, Achievement, Activity and Discovery. The activities on offer are varied and will be confirmed nearer the time but could include; Big zipper, Super swing, Archery, Assault course, Tree top trail, Air jump, and Climbing wall etc. For more information please visit <https://www.hilltopoutdoorcentre.co.uk/hilltop-video> or have a look through the attached parent information booklet.

APHS have subsidised the cost of this trip to encourage all students in the year groups to attend. After the year we have had we believe all students deserve the opportunity to take part. The cost of this trip to parents is £80, which includes all activities, fully supervised and taught by a qualified instructor, accommodation for one night, plus food and drink. For those students who are Pupil Premium there is a further reduction on cost.
