MESSAGE FROM – MR STEVENSON, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Attendance Update

Excellent attendance at the beginning of term is particularly important when forming good habits and routines. We have been very impressed with the numbers of students who have 100% attendance so far, keep it up!

We have received a number of very positive comments from our students relating to the changes that have been made to the school day – see quotes below.

Year 11 - “The new school day is great because it makes the day go quicker, so Netball Club comes sooner!”.

Year 10 - “The single lunch is good because now I can see my friends in other year groups”.

This year's changes to the school day came as a result of staff, student and parent feedback so we are delighted that they appear to have had such a positive impact.

= Best in Year

= Best in House

- Particular well-done if your tutor group has exceeded 95% for last week.
- Week 3-4 is when it gets harder to sustain 95% plus. Try your best to keep attending school each day. You will reap the rewards later on!
- If you are personally attending at 100% then well-done, keep up the good work!

- There isn't any best in house or year awards this week because so many tutor groups have done so well!
- It's great to see so many tutor groups recording conduct scores well over 95% and many are close to 100%.
