

APHS Local Advisory Board

Vicky Etheridge, Chair - Vicky is a parent governor with one child at APHS and one who has now moved into further education. Vicky currently manages the Business Improvement District in King's Lynn and has held a wide variety of management roles in the public and charitable sectors, covering a range of different issues including European policy and funding, nature conservation, regeneration and community development, and public health. Vicky has been a Governor at Norfolk primary and nursery since 2007, and Chair since 2015. Vicky is also a Director of Neutral Futures, a CIC set up to encourage investment in carbon sequester schemes such as mini-forests, re-wilding and the restoration of natural habitats.

Sally Garrett, Vice Chair - Sally is an experienced and effective Head Teacher. She has recently retired as Head Teacher at The Ashley School Academy Trust, Lowestoft, Suffolk. A special school for 140 pupils with MLD/Complex needs, many with associated disabilities such as autism, speech language & communication disorders and SEMH needs. The school has residential facilities and a highly effective and respected outreach service supporting mainstream schools. This is her third headship totalling over 22 years as a senior leader within the specialist sector. During her time as Headteacher, Sally has achieved continuous improvement and ensured that every pupil achieves their very best outcomes. Sally works as a National Leader of Education (NLE) within Suffolk and Norfolk, is a Senior Partner within Challenge Partners, a member of SSAT (The Schools Network) and works collaboratively with 'World Class Schools'. Sally lives locally, just outside APHS catchment.

Matt Hardman, Principal - Matt was appointed as Principal in September 2022 having previously served 7 years as Vice Principal/Associate Headteacher at APHS. Matt is passionate about school leadership and raising standards of education for young people. Having previously achieved the National Professional Qualification for Headteachers, Matt also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership and Management, a Level 7 apprenticeship in Senior Leadership and is a fellow of the Chartered Management Institute. He is a member of the Norfolk Headteachers Executive Group and Trustee of Wells United Charities.

Stephen Humphries - Steve has previous experience as a school governor, in two primary schools. He is a scientist who worked in industry for most of his career, specialising in agronomy. He was involved with research and standards setting at national and European levels. Steve has a keen interest in science education. Steve lives in Wells Next the Sea, where he is involved on the Wells Carnival Committee which is a central part of Wells' community life.

Kirsty Kerr - Kirsty is a parent governor with one child at APHS who has previous Governor experience in a Primary School. She works in Human Resources and therefore has experience in creating and implementing effective business processes supporting the development of values and ethos, and managing issues regarding personnel. Graduating in 2018 with a first class BA Honours degree in Early Childhood Professional Studies Kirsty is determined to help change the lives of young people growing up in challenging circumstances. She has previously worked as a primary school teaching assistant for a number of years with a focus on supporting pupils with special educational needs. She is youth mental health first aid trained, as well as being Lego therapy trained and has a passion for raising awareness of mental health and well-being through the use of blog writing and poetry.
