IMPACT ‘know thy impact’ (John Hattie)	Great outcomes	Personal development is exceptional. Children are happy, feel safe and enjoy coming to school. Rich experiences are planned cohesively.			Teachers receive focused and highly effective professional development leading to consistently improving the teaching of the curriculum.		Pupils have high levels of respect for others as well as highly positive attitudes and commitment to their education.		Pupils’ work across the curriculum is consistently of a high quality. All groups of children achieve well. The school’s intent and implementation of the curriculum are embedded securely across the school.
	Evaluation	Nationally generated performance data about pupil progress(IDSR)	Internal school self-evaluation and first-hand evidence of how pupils are doing.	Listening to a range of pupils read.	Discussions with pupils about what they have remembered about the content they have studied.	External validation of judgements through school improvement partnerships and across the Trust.	Parents who are well-informed about their child’s learning and are part of the learning journey and community of the school.		Governors who are well-informed and who challenge the improvement of the school each year.
