

Funded by

Department for Education

English Hubs

Wensum English Hub

Ready to Write: Reception's Building Blocks for Success

Join VNET Consultant, and writing expert – Emma Adcock – for this practical session which will cut through the confusion about early writing expectations. Learn exactly what the guidance says about the effective teaching of writing looks like in EYFS looks and why quality trumps quantity every time.

Delegates will:

- Discover how to establish systematic handwriting instruction from the start of Reception
- Leave with strategies to support daily routines and approaches that build strong foundations
- Learn practical strategies for supporting different needs, including fine motor development and left-handed writers

Aimed at: School Leaders, EYFS teachers

Date 15th January or 21st April 2026

Time: 13.45 – 16.30pm

Venue: Hethel Centre, Norwich, NR14 8FB

Cost: FREE – refreshments included

Click here or scan the QR code to register your place.

For more information email:
englishhubadmin@wensumtrust.org.uk

VNET EDUCATION CIC