Hautbois Residential

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday this week 27 Kittiwake pupils challenged themselves on our residential at Hautbois activity centre. There were many activities including axe throwing, zipline, grass sledging, abseiling, raft building, canoeing, monkey climbing, crate stacking and initiative tests.

William thought "The zip line was really fun, we had to see who could scream the loudest!"

Theia said "The grass sledging was breath taking, we went so fast!"

and Keegan thought "The canoeing was a bit scary, they kept tipping."

Everyone did brilliantly and they have all found out how brave they can be trying new things.
